Brekken reelected to chair Minnesota Credit Union Foundation

ST. PAUL, Minn. – The Minnesota Credit Union Foundation (MNCUF) Board of Directors named its table officers on Oct. 13. Pat Brekken was elected Chair, Dave Larson was elected Vice Chair, and Kristi Mukomela was elected Secretary/Treasurer. Table officers are elected for one-year terms, and each individual is entering into his or her second consecutive year in their respective roles.

Brekken

Brekken is President of Richfield/Bloomington Credit Union and Larson is Senior Vice President of Affinity Plus Federal Credit Union and Executive Director of the Affinity Plus Foundation. Both were appointed to new MNCUF Board seats in October 2009 and were elected to three-year terms in August 2010.

Larson

Mukomela, President of Novation Credit Union, served as MNCUF Chair since 2004-2010.

“The Minnesota Credit Union Foundation continues to capitalize on the progress we’ve made over the last few years,” Brekken said. “With our newly-refined focus on financial education, we look forward to the opportunity to engage more and more credit unions in the Foundation’s efforts and to be able to impact the broader community with our initiatives.”

Mukomela

The table officers serve alongside four other directors with staggered board terms:

- Chuck Albrecht, Mid-Minnesota Federal Credit Union, Baxter;
- Mary Hansen, Mayo Employees Federal Credit Union, Rochester;
- Lynn Kothe, North Memorial Federal Credit Union, Robbinsdale; and
- Brian Sherrick, Postal Credit Union, Woodbury.
